

Create the possibility to use either Google fonts or embed other fonts

I design websites for companies that would like to see their corporate font back on their website. It would be great when Muse supports either Google fonts or if it would have the possibility to embed fonts.