

Add support for link target in the new editor

The new admin editor does not have a visual method to allow users to set the link target.